

Render to God what is God's (Luke 20:19-21:4)

Questions to Ponder:

1. How can we daily render our lives to God?
2. What is one defining characteristic of the age to come that differs from this present age?
3. The poor widow's heart was on display during her giving in Luke 21:1-4. How did her heart differ from the rich people who also gave?

This week's catechism question:

Render to God what is God's (Luke 20:19-21:4)

How many persons are there in God?

There are three persons in the one true and living God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
They are the same in substance, equal in power and glory.

"The world and even thousands of Christians give no praise and thanks to God for millions of daily, life-sustaining providences because they do not see the world as the theatre of God's wonders. They see it as a vast machine running on mindless natural laws."
